

Executive Housing Land Requirements

Esh Developments manages all speculative development projects carried out by Esh Group, one of the leading construction companies in the North of England and Scottish Borders. Land buying for immediate or long-term strategic use remains an important part of our business, supporting the house building companies within the Group.

On behalf of Trivselhus by Esh we are currently looking for executive housing land across the North East and Yorkshire. As a privately owned company with funds available, we are able to act quick and decisively in outright land purchases or option/promotional agreements, and have the vision and experience to secure planning consent and add value in the current demanding development environment.
